

TraVERSE

Transatlantic Visiting Engineering Research Scholarship Experience

Qualified Master (MS)-level students from Europe, who would like to conduct their MS research project at Purdue University with our faculty members, are invited to apply for this research scholarship program. If selected for the TraVERSE program, each student will receive up to $2000 to aid in travel expenses to Purdue University in West Lafayette, Indiana, USA.

CHALLENGE Yourself!

TO APPLY

Complete an online application

Upload:

- Transcript
- Abstract of your proposed research project/idea
- Letter of reference
- Curriculum vitae or resume

The duration of the research can be between four to six months.

Start your application today!

For more information or questions, please contact Purdue College of Engineering's Global Fellows Manager, Ms. Rhonda von Werder